WHEN THE CHICKENS COME HOME TO ROOST

GROW THEM STRONG WITH DRAKENSBERG'S
QUALITY RANGE OF POULTRY FEED.

laying MASH

The Laying range has been especially developed for hens that have already started laying eggs. Once a hen lays her first egg, around 20 weeks of age, she can be switched over to laying mash. The balance of protein, calcium and other vitamins and minerals will encourage top tier egg laying abilities in hens. Extra calcium added to the laying mash helps ensure that the eggshells are crisp, clean and crunchy.

GENERIC RANGE

QUALITY RANGE OF SEEDS & GRAINS.

The logo for Drakensberg, featuring the word "DRAKENSBURG" in a white, serif, all-caps font. The text is set against a dark blue rectangular background. Below this rectangle is a horizontal band of a lighter blue color, which has a slight, irregular wavy shape at its bottom edge.

DRAKENSBURG

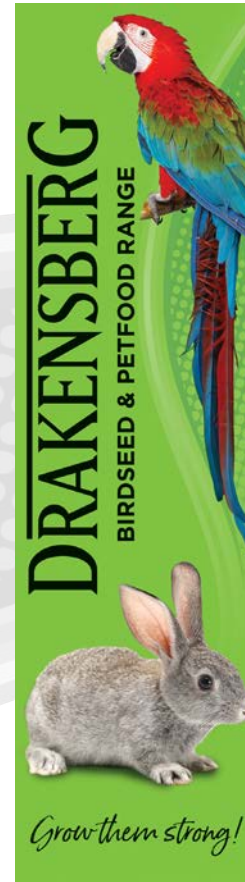

A large, stylized graphic element consisting of several overlapping, wavy, horizontal bands. The bands are in various shades of gray and white. The central band features a pattern of small, light gray dots. The overall shape is broad and tapers slightly towards the right side.
